

POETRY READING

Sunday, July 17th, 6:30 - 8 PM
Fred Heutte Garden, Norfolk, VA

We are excited to have a poetry reading by Tim Seibles on July 17th. Tim is a retired ODU professor and the former Poet Laureate of Virginia. He approaches themes of racial tension, and intimacy from several directions at once in poems with plain spoken yet fast-turning language. He is the author of several collections of poetry, including Body Moves (1988) and Fast Animal (2012) which won the Theodore Roethke memorial Poetry Prize.

Enjoy a pleasant early evening of poetry and socialization with your neighbors. Bring your chairs, snacks and good cheer, but no alcohol as this is City of Norfolk property.

Let's Get Connected aims to build community through the various activities, projects and classes that are in keeping with the values of Ghent Square, which include openness, acceptance, respect for differences and a general caring for our neighbors. If you have ideas for projects, activities or classes that would make Ghent Square a more enjoyable place to live, contact Marc Rabinowitz, marcdrabinowitz@gmail.com, (757) 639-8221.

Learn more at www.ghentsquare.org and www.facebook.com/groups/ghentsquare.

RSVP to Marc (marcdrabinowitz@gmail.com) so we can contact you with any changes.